Benjamin M. – Ops – Wroclaw, Poland

My name is Benjamin Meister, and I'm an Operations intern in BNY Poland.

Every day I take the bus to go to the office.

I check in and go to the 10th floor.

There I set up my desk and go for one of my favorite things in the office: it's sparkling water from the tap.

But of course, I also get a coffee, ready to work on my daily tasks.

Then I often have a snack and continue with my fellow interns to learn from this week's team.

The summer heat and availability always brings me back to the barista and an iced coffee.

My fellow interns and I often eat at one of the balconies.

Refreshed from caffeine and food I continue one of our current projects.

And as quickly as that, it's 5 o'clock.

That of course means leaving the office and going back home.

For another day at BNY
