What were the Fund’s costs for the last year?

(based on a hypothetical $10,000 investment)

Share Class	Costs of a $10,000 investment	Costs paid as a percentage of a $10,000 investment
Class A	$125	1.23%

How did the Fund perform last year?

- For the 12-month period ended November 30, 2025, the Fund’s Class A shares returned 2.83%.
- In comparison, the MSCI World Index (the “Index”) returned 16.99% for the same period.

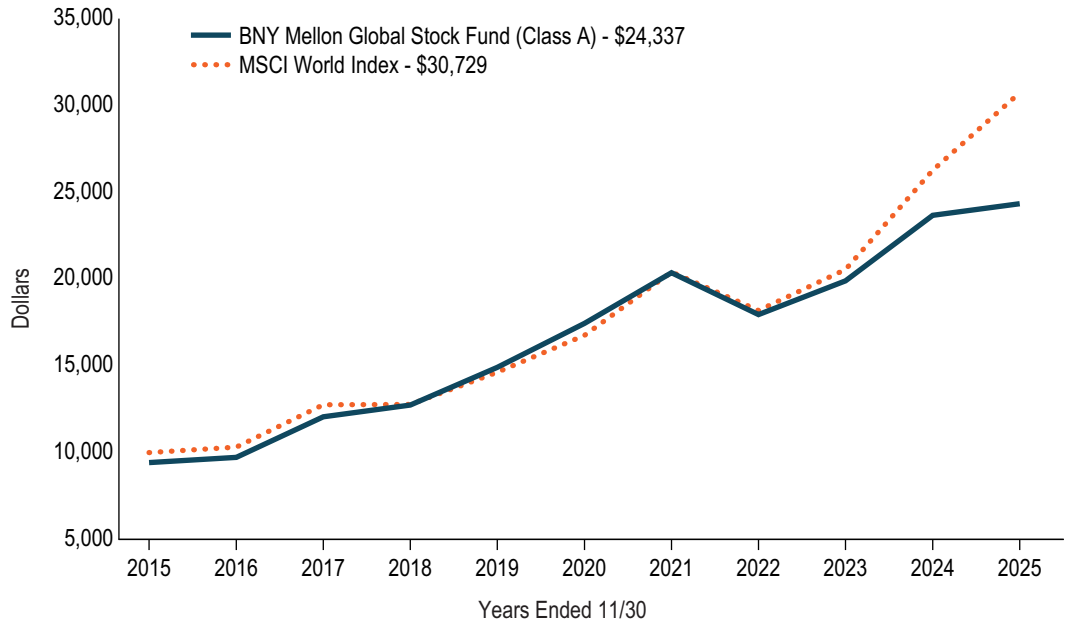

What affected the Fund’s performance?

- Global equities rose over the period, with lower interest rates and resilient corporate earnings fueling gains. The Japanese market led gains, followed by U.S. and European equities.
- The Fund’s performance relative to the Index benefited from lack of exposure to energy and real estate, and to a lesser degree from a slightly underweight exposure to consumer staples.
- The primary detractors from relative returns included security selection in industrials, health care and information technology. An overweight position in health care was an additional negative.

How did the Fund perform over the past 10 years?

The Fund's past performance is not a good predictor of the Fund's future performance. The graph and table do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on fund distributions or redemption of fund shares.

Cumulative Performance from December 1, 2015 through November 30, 2025
Initial Investment of $10,000

The above graph compares a hypothetical $10,000 investment in the Fund's Class A shares to a hypothetical investment of $10,000 made in the MSCI World Index on 11/30/2015. The performance shown takes into account the maximum initial sales charge on Class A shares and applicable fees and expenses of the Fund, including management fees and other expenses. The Fund's performance also assumes the reinvestment of dividends and capital gains. Unlike the Fund, the Index is not subject to charges, fees and other expenses. Investors cannot invest directly in any index.
