BNY Mellon Securities Corporation provides these estimates for informational purposes only. Please remember that they are based on preliminary information and are subject to change. It is possible that final distribution figures will be significantly different from the data above. Capital gain estimates are not intended or written to be used as tax advice. Because each investor's tax situation is unique, you should consult your tax professional about the federal, state, local, or foreign consequences of this information.

Investors can view historical prices (located in the "Investments" tab) of bny.com/investments to find historical NAV information for each BNY Investments fund.

Short-term and long-term capital gains are taxed differently, so investors may wish to consider waiting to estimate potential tax liability until more detailed information is released in November. Investors should consider the potential reasonableness of making investment decisions prior to an ex-distribution date.

Each fund's distributions are taxable as ordinary income or capital gains, except when your investment is through an IRA, 401(k) plan or other tax-advantaged investment plan (in which case you may be taxed upon withdrawal of your investment from such account).
