

7/19/24

BNY statement on false claims by Mellon ADIA

The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation (BNY) is aware that an entity calling itself “Mellon ADIA” is falsely representing affiliation with the firm.

Mellon ADIA is not affiliated with, licensed, sponsored or endorsed by The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation or its affiliated entities.

If you believe you are a victim of fraud, please reach out to the authorities in your jurisdiction

DISCLAIMER

BNY is the corporate brand of The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation and may be used to reference the corporation as a whole and/or its various subsidiaries generally. This material does not constitute a recommendation by BNY of any kind. The information herein is not intended to provide tax, legal, investment, accounting, financial or other professional advice on any matter, and should not be used or relied upon as such. The views expressed within this material are those of the contributors and not necessarily those of BNY. BNY has not independently verified the information contained in this material and makes no representation as to the accuracy, completeness, timeliness, merchantability or fitness for a specific purpose of the information provided in this material. BNY assumes no direct or consequential liability for any errors in or reliance upon this material.

This material may not be reproduced or disseminated in any form without the express prior written permission of BNY. BNY will not be responsible for updating any information contained within this material and opinions and information contained herein are subject to change without notice. Trademarks, service marks, logos and other intellectual property marks belong to their respective owners.

©2024 The Bank of New York Mellon. All rights reserved. Member FDIC. As of March 2024, we oversee $48.8 trillion in assets under custody and/or administration and $2.0 trillion in assets under management.