What were the Fund’s costs for the last year?

(based on a hypothetical $10,000 investment)

Share Class	Costs of a $10,000 investment	Costs paid as a percentage of a $10,000 investment
Class M	$73	0.70%

How did the Fund perform last year?

- For the 12-month period ended August 31, 2024, the Fund’s Class M shares returned 8.31%.
- In comparison, the Bloomberg U.S. Municipal Bond Index returned 6.09% for the same period.

What affected the Fund’s performance?

- Bond prices generally gained ground as inflation moderated, and interest rates plateaued. Shorter-maturity yields fell more than longer-maturity yields, while lower credit quality municipals outperformed.
- The Fund’s performance relative to the Index benefited notably from holdings below investment grade.
- From a state perspective, relative returns benefited most from holdings issued by Texas, followed closely by California. Hedging with financial futures also added to relative performance.
- No positions detracted notably from the Fund’s relative performance.

How did the Fund perform over the past 10 years?

The Fund's past performance is not a good predictor of the Fund's future performance. The graph and table do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on fund distributions or redemption of fund shares.

Cumulative Performance from September 1, 2014 through August 31, 2024 Initial Investment of $10,000

The above graph compares a hypothetical $10,000 investment in the Fund's Class M shares to a hypothetical investment of $10,000 made in each of the S&P Municipal Bond Index (a broad-based index) and Bloomberg U.S. Municipal Bond Index on 8/31/2014. The performance shown takes into account applicable fees and expenses of the Fund, including management fees and other expenses. The Fund's performance also assumes the reinvestment of dividends and capital gains. Unlike the Fund, the indexes are not subject to charges, fees and other expenses. Investors cannot invest directly in any index.
