What were the Fund’s costs for the last year?

(based on a hypothetical $10,000 investment)

Share Class	Costs of a $10,000 investment	Costs paid as a percentage of a $10,000 investment
Class C	$193	1.85%

How did the Fund perform last year?

- For the 12-month period ended August 31, 2024, the Fund’s Class C shares returned 8.77%.
- In comparison, the Bloomberg U.S. Municipal Bond Index returned 6.09% for the same period.

What affected the Fund’s performance?

- Stubborn inflation and tight monetary policy hindered the market, but it rebounded late in the period as inflation eased, and investors began to anticipate the beginning of Fed rate decreases.
- The fund’s focus on high yield municipals led to outperformance versus the investment-grade benchmark. High yield municipals performed well versus most other instruments of similar duration.
- The fund’s exposure to below-investment-grade tobacco securities was a detractor from performance. Certain other security selections also unperformed during the reporting period.

How did the Fund perform over the past 10 years?

The Fund's past performance is not a good predictor of the Fund's future performance. The graph and table do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on fund distributions or redemption of fund shares.

Cumulative Performance from September 1, 2014 through August 31, 2024
Initial Investment of $10,000

The above graph compares a hypothetical $10,000 investment in the Fund's Class C shares to a hypothetical investment of $10,000 made in the Bloomberg U.S. Municipal Bond Index (the "Index") on 8/31/2014. The performance shown takes into account the maximum deferred sales charge on Class C shares and applicable fees and expenses of the Fund, including management fees, 12b-1 fees and other expenses. The Fund's performance also assumes the reinvestment of dividends and capital gains. Unlike the Fund, the Index is not subject to charges, fees and other expenses. Investors cannot invest directly in any index.
