The performance data quoted represents past performance, which is no guarantee of future results. Share price and investment return fluctuate, and an investor's shares may be worth more or less than original cost upon redemption. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance quoted. Data assumes the reinvestment of dividends and capital gains, if any. Performance for periods less than 1 year is not annualized. Go to bny.com/investments for the fund's most recent month-end returns.

Market Price Performance is calculated using the most recent NYSE Arca Official Closing Price. Market Price returns do not represent investors' returns had they traded shares at other times.

A fund's NAV is the sum of all its assets less any liabilities, divided by the number of shares outstanding. Market Price Performance is calculated using the most recent NYSE Arca Official Closing Price. Market Price returns do not represent investors' returns had they traded shares at other times.

[†]Gross expenses is the total annual operating expense ratio for the fund, before any fee waivers or expense reimbursements. ^{††}Net Expenses is the total annual operating expense ratio for the fund, after any applicable fee waivers or expense reimbursements. The Net Expenses is the actual fund expense ratio applicable to investors.

²The Russell 1000° Value Index measures the performance of the large-cap value segment of the U.S. equity universe. It includes those Russell 1000 companies that are considered more value-oriented relative to the overall market as defined by Russell's leading style methodology. The Russell 1000° Value Index is constructed to provide a comprehensive and unbiased barometer for the large-cap value segment. The index is completely reconstituted annually to ensure new and growing equities are included and that the represented companies continue to reflect value characteristics. The fund currently does not have a stated benchmark to measure performance against, however comparison of fund performance to an appropriate index indicates how the fund's returns compare with those of a broad measure of market performance. Investors cannot invest directly in any index.

NAV is Net Asset Value. FDIC is Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. YTD is Year to Date. CFA® and Chartered Financial Analyst® are registered trademarks owned by the CFA Institute. ETF is Exchange Traded Fund.

Investors should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of an ETF carefully before investing. To obtain a prospectus, or a summary prospectus, if available, that contains this and other information about an ETF, contact your financial professional. For more information, call 1-800-373-9387 or visit bny.com/investments. Please read the prospectus carefully before investing.

¹Portfolio composition is as of 6/30/2025 and is subject to change at any time.

ETF shares are listed on an exchange, and shares are generally purchased and sold in the secondary market at market price. At times, the market price may be at a premium or discount to the ETF's per share NAV. In addition, ETFs are subject to the risk that an active trading market for an ETF's shares may not develop or be maintained. Buying or selling ETF shares on an exchange may require the payment of brokerage commissions.

Market Price is the most recent NASDAQ Official Closing Price. Premium/Discount Shareholders may pay more than net asset value when they buy Fund shares and receive less than net asset value when they sell those shares, because shares are bought and sold at current market prices. 20-Day Average Volume is the sum of last 20 days of trading volume divided by 20 days. 30-Day Median Bid-Ask Spread gives investors the midpoint within the spread between an ETF's selling price and buying price. It is calculated over the last 30 days in 10 second intervals by dividing the difference between the bid (sell price) and offer (buy price) by the midpoint of the National Best Bid Offer (NBBO) and identifying the median of those values.

Risks: Equities are subject to market, market sector, market liquidity, issuer, and investment style risks, among other factors, to varying degrees. The risks of investing in this ETF, typically reflect the risks associated with the types of instruments in which the ETFs invest. ETFs trade like stocks, are subject to investment risk, including possible loss of principal.

The fund will issue (or redeem) fund shares to certain institutional investors known as "Authorized Participants" (typically market makers or other broker-dealers) only in large blocks of fund shares known as "Creation Units." BNY Mellon Securities Corporation ("BNYSC"), a subsidiary of the BNY, serves as distributor of the fund. BNYSC does not distribute fund shares in less than Creation Units, nor does it maintain a secondary market in fund shares. BNYSC may enter into selected dealer agreements with Authorized Participants for the sale of Creation Units of fund shares.
