How has the Fund changed?

- On January 9, 2026, BNY Mellon Intermediate Bond Fund (“Predecessor Fund”), a series of BNY Mellon Funds Trust, was reorganized into the Fund (“Reorganization”). The Fund commenced operations upon completion of the Reorganization and continues the operations of the Predecessor Fund. Prior to the Reorganization, the Predecessor Fund’s Investor Shares redesignated into Class M shares. In addition, the Predecessor Fund’s Class M shares effected a reverse share split to approximate the net asset value per share of the Fund prior to the Reorganization. Prior to the Reorganization, the Predecessor Fund discontinued the imposition of shareholder services fees, which had previously been paid to BNY Mellon Securities Corporation, the Predecessor Fund’s distributor (“Distributor”), at an annual rate of .25% of the value of Investor class shares based on average daily net assets.
- In addition, effective October 1, 2025, BNY Mellon Investment Adviser, Inc., the Predecessor Fund’s investment adviser, engaged its affiliate, Insight North America LLC (“INA”), to serve as the sub-adviser to the Predecessor Fund.

Changes in or Disagreements with Accountants

- Starting January 9, 2026, in connection with the Reorganization noted above, Ernst & Young LLP (“EY”) became the independent registered public accounting firm of the Fund and KPMG LLP was discharged as the Predecessor Fund’s accounting firm. EY serves as the independent registered public accounting firm for all funds in the BNY Mellon ETF Trust II. There were no disagreements with the former accounting firm during the Predecessor Fund’s fiscal years ended August 31, 2025 and August 31, 2024 and the subsequent interim period through January 9, 2026.
