CLOSED-END FUND DISCLOSURE

BNY Mellon Municipal Bond Infrastructure Fund, Inc. (NYSE: DMB)
BNY Mellon Strategic Municipal Bond Fund, Inc. (NYSE: DSM)
BNY Mellon Strategic Municipals, Inc. (NYSE: LEO)
(each, a "Fund")

For Immediate release, New York, NY – November 4, 2026.

Adviser Consolidation

The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation intends to consolidate several of its U.S. investment firms (the "Adviser Consolidation"), effective, subject to regulatory requirements, on or about January 1, 2027 (the "Effective Date"). The Adviser Consolidation will be effected via corporate mergers, with the surviving consolidated firm to be named "BNY Investments Corporation." BNY Mellon Investment Adviser, Inc. ("BNYIA"), each Fund's investment adviser, and Insight North America LLC ("INA"), each Fund's sub-investment adviser, are involved in the Adviser Consolidation. Accordingly, the Board of Trustees of each Fund approved a new management agreement ("Management Agreement") for each Fund with BNY Investments Corporation and terminated the sub-investment advisory agreement with INA, effective on the Effective Date. The new Management Agreement is substantially similar in all material respects to each Fund's existing management agreement.

It is currently anticipated that each Fund's portfolio managers from INA who are responsible for the day-to-day management of each Fund's investments will continue to manage each Fund's investments as of the Effective Date as portfolio managers for BNY Investments Corporation. It is also currently anticipated that there will be no material changes to each Fund's investment objective, strategies or policies, no reduction in the nature, quality or level of services provided to each Fund, and no increase in the management fee payable by each Fund as a result of the Adviser Consolidation.

The Adviser Consolidation will not involve a change in actual control or management of BNYIA or INA. Because there is no actual change in control or management of BNYIA or INA, the Adviser Consolidation does not constitute an "assignment" of each Fund's management or sub-investment advisory agreements for purposes of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and, therefore, a shareholder vote is not required.

Branding Initiative

The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation is currently engaged in a global brand strategy initiative with the aim of building a global investment brand for BNY Investments. In connection with this initiative,

"BNY Mellon" is being replaced with "BNY" to align with the BNY Investments brand. Accordingly, on the Effective Date, the Funds' names will be changed as follows:

Current Names	New Name
BNY Mellon Municipal Bond Infrastructure Fund, Inc.	BNY Municipal Bond Infrastructure Fund, Inc.
BNY Mellon Strategic Municipal Bond Fund, Inc.	BNY Strategic Municipal Bond Fund, Inc.
BNY Mellon Strategic Municipals, Inc.	BNY Strategic Municipals, Inc.
