Benchmark

A benchmark is a metric or baseline to judge a fund's performance against. The BNY Mellon Multi-Asset Moderate Fund uses the UK Investment Association Mixed Investment 20-60% Shares NR Sector average as an appropriate benchmark for comparison.

This benchmark is a collection of funds with different investment managers. Both the Fund and the constituents of the benchmark have a range of different investments. Typically, between 20% and 60% of the funds' portfolios will be invested in company shares.

As an actively managed fund, the Investment Manager can make investment decisions (whether to buy, sell or hold assets) at its discretion. These decisions are made in line with the Fund's objective and investment policy as disclosed in the Prospectus.

INTRODUCTION

Access to the best of both worlds: the growth opportunities of equities with the added safety through the lower risk of bonds.

Investing with a “moderate” risk appetite means lessening volatility to your investment journey while benefitting from opportunities for capital growth.

With the BNY Mellon Multi-Asset Moderate Fund you can maintain a “moderate” level of risk and benefit from the growth potential offered by a diversified portfolio of shares, bonds and alternatives assets such as property and renewable energy.

The Fund offers a controlled approach to investing, which requires bonds, traditionally considered a safer asset than shares, to comprise a minimum of 30% of the Fund’s portfolio. Additionally, during periods of market uncertainty, the managers have the flexibility to increase the Fund’s bond holdings.

Offering global flexibility the managers can invest in all regions that they believe present the right investment opportunities.

Investments can be affected by interest rates and inflation trends, which may negatively affect the value of the Fund.

This Fund invests in international markets. This means it is exposed to changes in currency rates, which could affect the value of the Fund.

HOW THE FUND WORKS

The Fund is managed using a disciplined four-step investment process for a combination of income and long-term capital growth.

STEP 1:

Identifying big-picture themes

The Fund's investment process starts with the big picture: what are the global themes and long-term trends that are creating opportunities and risk for investors? From the internet of things to financialisation to big government,² this top-down perspective helps to narrow the universe of companies and markets the managers may wish to invest in.

STEP 2:

Picking the right investments

The managers draw on Newton's global multidimensional research, to help identify attractive investments to tap into specific sector trends. The Fund invests directly in individual shares and bonds, with the managers deciding where best to invest for income and where to seek capital growth.

STEP 3:

Putting it all together

Generally, the Fund will invest 20-60% in shares, a minimum of 30% in bonds and the remainder in alternative assets and cash. This wide diversification helps reduce its overall risk. The amount invested in each individual holding reflects the managers' view on how strong its prospects are versus the risks, as well as how it helps to diversify the Fund.

STEP 4:

Staying flexible

The managers decide the overall mix of investments in the Fund as well as choosing the individual stocks. The Fund is invested without country or sector constraints, and the managers have the flexibility to increase or decrease its equity and other exposures as market conditions change.
